Description

When a blade is needed that can do it all then look no further, The Piranha Blade cuts all materials quicker and outlasts general purpose blades out on the market 3-1. This blade is designed with 3 different types of segments, A kicker segment for undercut protection while cutting abrasive materials, A turbo segment that will provide the speed, and the regular segment that will provide the life. All in all you cant ask for a better blade priced to fit your budget.

This blade is 12" x .125, With a 1"/20MM Arbor & 10MM Segment.

20HP Max.
